

SUNDAY SCHOOL SALLY

On the 3rd Sunday of each month in the Fall, and the 4th Sunday of each month in the Spring, John Adams will be bringing his golden retriever, Sally, to a different classroom. Sally is a trained therapy dog and she has experience visiting some of the senior care centers in the area. Below is the schedule for which rooms Sally will be joining each month.

What to expect in the class:

- John and Sally will join the class in their classrooms. Classes being visited by Sally may not follow typical morning schedule.*
- They will give a short talk about therapy/service animals, how and when to interact with them and answer questions the kids might have; and a lesson on God and animals.
- The remaining time will Sunday School class like normal. John and Sally will stay in the class, Sally will do what she does best.

The point of this is not to have Sally there as a distraction in the room but to teach the kids the importance of service and therapy animals, as well as to simply have Sally be there for the kids in that capacity for a short time.
